ORDER

ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER, United States Magistrate Judge.

In support of its application for attorneys' fees in connection with Defendants' contempt, Plaintiff has submitted billing records from four law firms. The records for two of those firms – FisherBroyles, LLP, and Dowd Scheffel PLLC – contain redactions for block task entries that do not appear to be accounted for in the amounts claimed for those blocks. Accordingly, by June 1, 2021, Plaintiff shall submit by affidavit sufficient information for the Court to assess the fees incurred specifically for the contempt-related tasks performed by those two firms. Relatedly, Plaintiff has submitted evidence regarding the credentials and experience of the Nevriy firm/attorneys, but has not submitted any similar information for the other three firms. Accordingly, by June 1, 2021, Plaintiff shall submit by affidavit sufficient information for the Court to assess the law firms and principal attorneys for whom Plaintiff seeks to recover fee expenditures.

SO ORDERED.
